

Iglu daybed with fabric top

by Ramón Esteve

Info

Description

The Igloo daybed, created by Ramón Esteve, is an expression of design and sustainability. Its 100% recyclable polyethylene base is produced using the rotational moulding technique, guaranteeing durability and respect for the environment.

The canopy has a stainless steel structure and fabric roof with heat-sealed seams, while its fabric is completely removable for easy maintenance and customisation.

Weight: 128.57 Kg
